ELLESMERE COLLEGE with english classes

Ellesmere is a small town located in England, near the town of Oswestry, in the county of Shropshire, known as the "Lake District", with "The Mere" being the largest and most spectacular of the nine glacial lakes in the area, it is located on the edge of the town itself and is a legacy of the last Ice Age, the lake is surrounded by forests and gardens and is a paradise for nature lovers. Over the centuries Ellesmere has developed into a vibrant market town with numerous Georgian buildings and its network of medieval streets. The trade is varied and in some cases preserves the type of small business that has been passed down from father to son over the years.

Located on the outskirts of the city, Ellesmere School was founded in 1884 and is a highly regarded school in the area. It has magnificent facilities in impressive buildings and surrounding grass fields and is part of the Woodard Corporation, the largest group of independent schools in the United Kingdom. It offers large equipped classrooms, a computer room, a sports center, a squash court, cricket and rugby fields, a soccer field, an equipped gym, a tennis court and an indoor swimming pool.

The English course consists of 12 hours of general English, from Monday to Friday, with classes taking place in the morning or afternoon. Classes are held in groups of a maximum of 15 students and are taught by specialized teachers, who make the classes enjoyable, fun and participatory. We work with a program in which young people will practice the four main communication skills of the language, with special emphasis on speaking.
Young people must take a test to find out their level of English and be able to place them in homogeneous groups from the first day, which facilitates learning and avoids boredom. Once the course is completed, all students will receive the Certificate of Attendance.
