Horse riding camp without Spanish classes

In this program, students live with a host family and attend a horse riding camp during the day. It's an ideal program for horse riding enthusiasts who want to improve their skills and experience the Spanish way of life by living with a family.

The camp runs from Monday to Friday. It's a program to learn or improve your riding skills.

During their stay, they will be accommodated in single rooms. They will take one full-day excursion or two half-day excursions. Above all, they will have fun and learn. They will stay with a host family where there is a young person of the same or similar age as the visiting student.

During their stay, we maintain contact with the student to learn about their integration and development in their training.
